

WINTER

Reading Challenge

January 4 - February 13, 2021

Read 5 books using the ideas below!

Email the titles of the books you've read to Teen Librarian Marla Martin mmartin@biblio.org to be entered to win a bag full of library surprises!

Entries must be received by February 13th and will be drawn at random - one grand prize winner will be chosen.

A book that will make you smarter!

Try a book on cool technology or get tips on speaking in public or even learn to make a water rocket!

A book made in to a movie or series!

Try a love story or a scifi adventure or even revisit an old favorite!

A book that makes you laugh!

Try learning a few new jokes or chuckle about school days, family life and growing up!

A graphic novel - they're not just superheroes anymore!

Try a classic book or a memoir in graphic format or National Book Award finalist!

A book that speaks to your creative side!

Try a book on drawing techniques or learn about pop culture art or even learn to make cow cupcakes!

These are only suggested titles! You can read books from home or from the WPL. Call us at 203-263-3502 or email us at woodbury.library@biblio.org to request books from our collection for curbside pickup.
